This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFATORY NOTE TO VOL. I

I. Plan of the Work.

When in 1889 I issued the small edition of two of the Saxon Chronicles parallel for the years 787–1001 A.D., I expressed the hope that in the course of the next year or two I might be able to accomplish a complete edition of the whole work. That hope has for various reasons not been realised. Of those reasons only one need be mentioned here. The Delegates of the Clarendon Press have honoured me with the request that I should re-edit for them the Latin Text of Bede's 'Historia Ecclesiastica Gentis Anglorum.' Seeing that so much of the earlier part of the Saxon Chronicle is based on Bede, it would be, in the strictest sense of the word, preposterous to undertake the criticism of the former before dealing with the latter. The publication of the introduction and notes to the Chronicle must consequently be deferred until I have completed my work on Bede. It has been decided, however, to issue the present volume, containing the text, appendices, critical notes and glossary, at once. It is complete in itself, and it is believed that in the glossary everything is contained that is necessary for the linguistic interpretation of the texts.

The plan of this work aims at reproducing the MSS. as nearly as possible; and with this object all the texts have been collated afresh. I can honestly say that I have spared no pains to make the texts as correct as possible. But I have so often discovered errors where I had thought that everything was correct, that I dare not assert that none such have escaped me. Some additional various readings, chiefly from Wheloc's edition of the burnt MS. A. are given in Appendix C. Of these a few are of considerable importance.

The plan of this edition of course precluded any idea of normalising the texts. I have however in the glossary carefully marked the length of the syllables, and distinguished late and abnormal forms by enclosing them in round brackets.

In the glossary I have aimed at giving not only every word, but every form which occurs in the two MSS. A. and E. here printed in full. So that in regard to them the glossary will, I believe, be found to be a complete register of all variations. In the case of the other MSS. from which merely extracts are given, only the principal forms are registered in the glossary; minute variations of spelling, &c., being, as a rule, ignored. As however all passages in which the other MSS. vary to any important extent from A. and E. have been embodied either in the text or in the critical notes, it is believed that the glossary will afford a tolerably complete measure of the Anglo-Saxon historical vocabulary as represented by the Chronicles.

The arrangement of the glossary was a matter of no slight mechanical difficulty, because it had to be compiled from texts varying considerably in date and place of origin. The actual plan is due to practical considerations; and that form was adopted as the type which would enable the greatest number of the words occurring in the texts to be brought together without alteration. Hence where the orthography of the two texts differs, the rather late forms of E. have been taken as the type in preference to the occasionally archaic forms of Æ. The system thus resulting from a balance of convenience has, I hope, been carried out with consistency. Further details as to the arrangement of the glossary will be found in the explanatory note which precedes it, which the reader is advised to consult carefully before making use of the glossary.

A word must be said as to the punctuation. Here, too, I have endeavoured to mark the peculiarities of the MSS. The only stops which occur in the MSS. are as a rule the point either on or above the line (.) (·), the inverted semicolon (⁏), and the peculiar stops which occur in MS. Æ., represented in the text approximately by (ꝛ) and (:,). All these have been retained; stops not in the MSS. are represented by commas and semicolons. In a few instances, so few that they might I think be counted on the fingers of one hand, the colon and semicolon do occur in the MSS.; here the colon has been retained, the semicolon has been inverted.

The text of Æ. has been considerably interpolated. In a few cases these additions are in good and fairly early hands. Such passages are printed in smaller type, but not in italics. The bulk of these interpolations, however, are due to a hand of the twelfth century, and are given in small italics.

Letters or words wanting in any MS., and supplied from other sources, are enclosed in square brackets.

Passages in F. which are enclosed in round brackets are in the MS. insertions on the margin or above the line. In many cases it is very difficult to determine whether they are by the same hand as the text or a different one.

In other cases words or letters inserted by the scribe of the text above the line are marked by convergent dashes, e. g. for ʼðʼ-ferde; 983 E. It seemed worth while to mark these cases, as they often appear to indicate a difference between phonetic and historical spelling. The scribe first spelt the word as he pronounced it, then his eye told him that something was wrong, and he inserted the missing letter above the line.

The expansion of contractions is indicated in the usual way by italics. A few contractions have been left unexpanded, partly because of their frequent occurrence, but still more because it was impossible to be sure what was the exact form which the scribe had in his mind. A list of these unexpanded contractions precedes the glossary.

II. The Manuscripts.

Discussion of the mutual relations, special characteristics, and comparative value of the different MSS. of the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle, must be reserved for the second volume. A brief list of them is however given here, for convenience of reference, and in explanation of the critical notes.

A.

This, the first of our two parallel texts, is commonly known as the Parker MS., because it is one of the many treasures given by Archbishop Parker to Corpus Christi College, Cambridge. It is numbered 173 in Nasmith's Catalogue. It is described by Wanley, p. 130, and by Sir T. D. Hardy, 'Catalogue of British History,' i. 651. It is often cited as the Winchester Chronicle, because it is believed to be based upon a Chronicle now lost which had its origin at Winchester. It belonged, however, to Christ Church, Canterbury, and it was at Canterbury that the later entries were made, and the passages alluded to above interpolated. A large number of these interpolations have to do with Canterbury and its See.

B.

This is also a Canterbury book. It is now in the Cottonian Collection of the British Museum. (Tiberius A. vi.) It is described by Wanley, p. 224, and by Hardy, i. 655. It ends with the year 977, and has hardly any special points of interest except the insertion of the Mercian Chronicle, which will be noticed more fully under C.

C.

This is also a Cottonian MS. (Tiberius B. i.) It is described by Wanley, p. 219, and by Hardy, i. 656. To name this MS. like A. and E. from its place of deposit, would not distinguish it from B. D. and F. It is best therefore to designate it from its probable place of origin as the Abingdon Chronicle. Its main importance consists perhaps in its later entries. But even apart from these it contains many points of interest, of which the most striking is one which it shares with B., viz. the incorporation in an unchanged form of the little Mercian Chronicle, or 'Annals of Æthelflæd,' embracing the years 902–924. (Vide infra, pp. 92–3, 100, and notes.)

This manuscript, like the last two, is Cottonian. (Tiberius B. iv.) It is described by Wanley, p. 220, and Hardy, i. 657. Like C., it is best designated by its place of origin, which was probably Worcester. To this origin it owes one of its salient features, viz. the embodiment of a considerable number of Northumbrian Annals. Through the medium of D., or some closely related MS., these Northumbrian Annals passed into E. The chief interest of D., as of C., lies in its later entries, but even from the beginning it represents a new recension of the Chronicle, and is more closely related in many respects to E. than to any of the preceding MSS. These however are points which must be discussed elsewhere. D. has embodied the Mercian Chronicle of B. and C., but has endeavoured to digest it into chronological order with the rest of its materials. (Vide infra, pp. 92–3, 100, and notes.)

E.

This, the second of our two parallel texts, is among Archbishop Laud's MSS. in the Bodleian Library (Laud, 636). It is described by Wanley, p. 64, and Hardy, i. 657. Its place of origin was Peterborough, as is abundantly proved by the insertion of many pieces of local history. It was written in the first instance about the year 1122, and continued in various hands to 1154. Thus it carries us down three quarters of a century beyond any other MS. B. ends, as we have seen, in 997, A. (W.) in 1001, F. in 1058, C. in 1066, Ā. in 1070, D. in 1079. This MS. is, as I have said, largely based on D. or on some sister MS. But the scribe had other materials also which cannot be considered here.

F.

This is a Canterbury MS., and is now in the Cotton Collection. (Domitian A. viii.) It is described by Wanley, p. 220, and by Hardy, i. p. 660. I call it from its place of origin the Canterbury MS. This can create no confusion with Ā. or B.; as B. is very rarely cited, and Ā. is best known from its place of deposit as the Parker MS. This Chronicle is to a great extent of the nature of an epitome. The compiler probably had before him our Ā., and either E. or some MS. very similar to E. But the chief interest of this MS. consists in the fact that it is bilingual, written both in Saxon and Latin. Thus it forms a point of transition between the native Annals and the Latin Chronicles which ultimately supplanted them. I have gone carefully over both versions, and have been able to glean from the Latin some interesting illustrations of the Saxon text. I would instance especially the notes on pp. 58, 83 infra. The MS. is of the twelfth century.

A. (G.) (W.)

This is also a Cottonian MS. (Otho B. xi.) With the exception of three leaves it perished in the Cottonian fire of 1731, and we are mainly dependent for our knowledge of it on Wheloc's edition of the Chronicle which was based on this MS. It has been customary to denote this MS. by the letter G.; but Professor Earle rightly objected to this notation, as giving the impression that this MS. is later than F., whereas it is at least 100 if not 150 years earlier. He suggested the notation A. to express the fact that it is an evident transcript of Ȝ. Mr. Thorpe called it W., the initial of Wheloc, and I have followed him wherever the readings cited are derived solely from Wheloc. When I wish to indicate the MS. as distinct from the edition I call it A. It ends, as I have said, at 1001. (Vide infra, p. 132, and note p. 295.)

H.

This is a fragment of a lost Chronicle, and is described infra p. 245, note.

It remains for me to express a few of the most prominent obligations which I have incurred in the preparation of this book. For the glossary I have naturally made constant use of the new Bosworth-Toller 'Anglo-Saxon Dictionary,' also of Mr. Sweet's 'Anglo-Saxon Reader,' the glossary to which contains an excellent selection of words. Grein's monumental 'Sprachschatz der angelsächsischen Dichter' has also been of the greatest service, especially for the poetical passages in the Chronicle.

My thanks to the many friends who have helped me and who are helping me with my work I defer. Three names I must, however, mention. In the first place I must thank Professor Earle, to whom I owe my original introduction to Anglo-Saxon studies, for the generosity with which he consented to the re-casting of his work by a younger hand, and not less for untiring help and sympathy throughout the work. I must thank Professor Napier, who has for this, as for the smaller edition, most kindly read the proofs of the glossary, and made very many useful corrections and suggestions. He is not, however, in the slightest degree responsible for the general arrangement and execution of the glossary. And I must thank the Reverend J. T. Lang, M.A., Fellow and Tutor of Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, who, when I went to Cambridge to collate the Parker MS., received me, a perfect stranger, as if I had been an old friend. To his hospitality and kindness, and that of his colleagues, I owe many pleasant associations. It is a matter of genuine satisfaction to me that my first real experience of Cambridge life should have been in connection with the College which bears the same name as my own.

[1] Originally 892, but increased by a year as well as all following years up to 929 (originally 928) inclusive. The first scribe seems to have omitted 930, which was a blank annal. The corrector first alters 929 into 930, then strikes it out altogether, and proceeds to take a year off, making 931 into 930, and so on to the end of 937 (originally 938). Then 938 is inserted, 939 left as it was, 941 and 942 are made into 940 and 941; 942 is inserted, and at 943 the original series is resumed unaltered. Up to 930, W., with one exception, agrees with the corrected numbers in A, after that point it retains the original numbering.

[7] The MSS. B. and C., after closing the year 915 (918 A.) fetch back to 896 (the annals 896 to 901 being blank) and introduce the present episode, which may be considered to close at 924 (925 A.). Both are then barren to 934 (935 A.), where they fall in with the usual current of History. The episode forms therefore a little Mercian Register of about twenty years, and might be styled the 'Annals of Æthelflæd.' The compiler of D. has in-

APPENDICES.

APPENDIX A.

In MS. C. the Chronicle is preceded by the following composition, which consists of two parts; the first a sort of metrical calendar, the latter a string of proverbial sayings. These Poems were first printed by Hickes in his Thesaurus (1705), vol. i. p. 203, with a Latin translation: and again (after Hickes) in a separate form by the Rev. Samuel Fox with an English translation and notes, with the title Menologium seu Calendarium Poeticum, etc. (1830). Ebeling included them in his Angelsächsisches Lesebuch (1847).

The Calendar was re-edited by Bouterwek with an interlinear Latin translation and notes, under the title: Calendcwide i. e. Menologium Ecclesiæ Anglo-Saxonicæ Poeticum (1857).

Grein included both poems in the second volume of his monumental work: Bibliothek der Angelsächsischen Poesie (1858), now in course of republication by Wülker.

Professor Earle printed them in the Preface to the former edition of the present work (1865), justly remarking that 'their intimate association with the Chronicle seemed to call for their insertion.'

Mr. Sweet has printed the Gnomic Verses in the various editions of his Anglo-Saxon Reader, Clarendon Press, 1876 ff.

Cronica Saxonica Abbingdoniæ ad annum 1066[1].

APPENDIX B.

I.—A.D. 694. After this annal is inserted in F. King Wihtred's grant of privileges to the Church. This has been printed in Saxon and Latin from this MS. by Birch, Cartularium Saxonicum, i. 137–140, Nos. 94, 95. He also gives other versions of the document, Nos. 91–93. Of these No. 92 had been already printed by Kemble, Cod. Dipl. v. 36, and Thorpe, Diplomatarium, p. 9 (who mark it as spurious). Nos. 91, 92, 94 had been also printed by Haddan and Stubbs, iii. 238 ff., and No. 94 in M.H.B. pp. 324 f., Thorpe, Chronicle, i. 66 f. It is not, therefore, reprinted here.

II.—A. D. 796. This annal in F. runs on into Archbishop Æðelheard's declaration of the Pope's commands respecting lay power in the Church. This is given in Saxon and Latin from this MS. by Birch, Cartularium, i. 404–5, No. 290 A, in Saxon by Haddan and Stubbs, iii. 516–7; M.H.B. pp. 338–9, Thorpe, Chronicle, i. 102–3. Another Latin version is given in Kemble, Cod. Dipl. v. 56–7 (who marks it as spurious). Haddan and Stubbs, iii. 517–8, Birch, i. 402–3. It is therefore unnecessary to reprint it here.

III.—A.D. 870. After the mention of Archbishop Ceolnoð's death, F. continues (on the margin) as follows:—Ða ferde f. 54.

Tunc Æðered rex et Ælfredus 'frater eius' dederunt episcopo Wiltun scire archiepiscopatum Cantie, eo quod 'ante fuerat monachus' eiusdem ecclesie. Cum autem uenisset Cantuariam, statim cogitare cepit quomodo possit eicere clericos de ecclesia Christi, quos Ceolnothus pro tali necessitate compulsus ibi posuit. Primo 'igitur' anno ordinationis suæ tanta mortalitas facta est in ecclesia Christi, ut de tota congregatione monachorum non remanerent nisi quinque. Qua de causa quia ita subito non potuit inuenire tot monachos qui ibi seruitium Dei facere possent, ex simplicitate cordis precepit capellanis clericis suis, ut essent cum eis usque quo Deus pacificaret terram, quæ tunc nimis erat turbata propter nimias tempestates bellorum. Accepit etiam de uillis suis presbiteros, ut essent cum monachis, ita tamen ut monachi semper haberent dominatum super clericos. Cogitauit idem 'archiepiscopus' et sepe suis dixit, quia statim cum Deus pacem nobis dederit, aut isti clerici monachi fient, aut ego ubicumque monachos inueniam quos reponam. Scit enim Deus, inquid, quod aliter facere non possum. Sed nunquam temporibus suis pax fuit in Anglia, et ideo remanserunt clerici cum monachis, nec ullo tempore fuit ecclesia sine monachis. Sed nec iste Æðeredus archiepiscopus potuit facere.

IV. A.D. 995. The following is F.'s Latin Version of this annal, which was promised above, p. 131, note 10:—

Iste fuit prudens ualde, ita ut illo in tempore nullus sapientior haberetur in Anglia. Recedente itaque inde rege, Ælfricus pergit Doroberniam. Ubi cum uenisset, receptus est, a tali ordine clericorum, a quo minus uellet. Cogitauit igitur et multum secum tractans, quali modo possit eicere eos, quos sciebat in ecclesia Christi iniuste mansisse. Ut supra diximus, ualde fuit prudens, et ecclesiasticis disciplinis plurimum instructus. Itaque præcepit congregari omnes quos sciebat prudentiores per totam Angliam, et maxime senes. Ad quem cum pro reuerentia uiri *festina*nter uenissent, requisiuit ab eis si quid aut ipsi a suis antecessoribus de ecclesia Christi Cantiæ audissent, aut ipsi in aliquo loco *legi*ssent, quis ordo in prædicta ecclesia Deo seruire debuisset, 'clericorum aut monachorum,' aut 'quis' eo tempore postquam Agustinus Angliam ingressus est, ibi locatus esset in initio. Ipse uero multa a multis antea 'inde' audiuit, et in libris legit. Tunc seniores et prudentiores narrauerunt ei, quod inde a suis patribus audissent. Postquam Deus, 'inquiunt,' per beatum Augustinum aperuit cor regis Ædelberti ad suscipiendam fidem Christi, ipse Augustinus elegit sibi sedem in ciuitate Dorobernia *quæ er*at caput totius regni Ædelberti regis, 'vbi' inuenit quoddam opus inceptum Romano opere, quod auxiliante rege statuit perficere. Quod dum perfectum esset rex Ægelbertus cepit consilium quærere ab Augustino et a cæteris consiliariis suis, quem ordinem monachorum uel clericorum conuenientius in illa ecclesia ad seruiendum Deo constituere potuisset. Qui omnes dederunt consilium, ut rex ex sua parte mitteret nuntios suos, et Augustinus monachos suos cum nuntiis regis Romæ, ad papam Gregorium, et eius consilio sicut antea idem Augustinus uenit in Angliam, ita et ecclesia iam nominata dedica*retur* et ordinaretur. Quod et factum est. Nam rex statim paratis nuntiis suis, misit Romæ, et Augustinus nichilominus suos. Cum autem uenissent ad papam, et nuntias*sent* quod Angli susce-pissent fidem Christi, gauisus est ualde. Auditis itaque omnibus quæ a rege Augustino mandata fuerant, statim remisit nuntios, cum quibus hos uiros misit Augustino ut essent ei in adiutorium ad fidem Christi confirmandam; Mellitum, Iustum, Paulinum, Rufianum. Per istos etiam misit Augustino pallium, atque in quo loco deberet episcopos ordinare, et ponere mandauit; ecclesiam quoque quam fecerat in honorem Ihesu Christi, et S. Mariæ matris eius, præcepit dedi*cari*, *eius*demque ordinis quo ipse Augustinus, et alii quos ipse sibi misit, erant, in eadem ecclesia ad seruiendum Deo ponere, sibique ibidem sedem archiepiscopalem et omnibus suc*cessoribus* suis statuere, omnesque archiepiscopos sibi succedentes monachos esse debere, ex parte Dei uiuentis, et beati Petri, et ex sua, et omnium suc*cess*orum præcepit. Cum autem nuntii reuersi uenissent ad regem et ad Augustinum, gaudio maximo repleti sunt pro tali mandato. Tunc Augustinus festinanter dedicauit ecclesiam illo die quo festum sanctorum Primi et Feliciani, 'v. Idus Iunii,' habetur, posuitque 'in ea' monachos sicut papa mandauit; et ex ipsis ordinabantur episcopi per Angliam sicut ipse legisti in Ystoria Anglorum. Itaque cum ista Ælfricus archiepiscopus audisset, et tales testes habuisset, qui illo tempore maxime in consilio regis erant, *ga*udio repletus est. Addiderunt adhuc prædicti uiri: Ita sicut diximus, permanserunt monachi in ecclesia Christi Cantuariæ, tempore Augustini, Laurentii, Melliti, Iusti, *Hono*rii, Deusdedit, Theodori, Brihtwaldi, Tatwini, Nothelmi, Cuthberti, Breguuini, Ianberti, Aðelhardi, Wulfredi, Fe'o'logildi. Illo uero primo anno *quo Che*lnodus suscepit archiepiscopatum Cantiæ tanta mortalitas facta est, ut in ecclesia Christi non remanerent nisi v. monachi, et ideo pro tali necessitate idem C. archiepiscopus accepit de clericis suis presbiteros, qui quousque restauraret ecclesiam monachis, iuuarent paucos monachos qui remanserunt. Nunc autem est in potestate regis et tua, si diutius uultis ut ibi clerici *re*maneant, quia postquam pro tali necessitate ibi positi sunt, non potuerunt leuius eici quam modo. Tunc archiepiscopus cum magna festinatione cum his omnibus quos secum ibi habebat, perrexit ad regem Ægelbertum, et indicauit ei per ordinem hæc omnia. Tunc dixit accepto consilio rex:

Hoc uidetur 'mihi' melius consilium, ut eatis Romæ pro pallio uestro, et indicetis apostolico hæc omnia, et secundum suum consilium per omnia fieri concedo. Dixerunt omnes optimum esse consilium regis. Archiepiscopus autem paratis rebus suis perrexit Romam. Statim uero ut clerici audierunt consilium regis, parauerunt duos ex ipsis qui irent Rome, portantes secum multum auri et argenti, quod darent papæ pro pallio. Sed nuntii archiepiscopi precesserunt. Nam cum clerici peruenerunt ad papam, respondit se nolle illorum uerba suscipere, quia nullum signum nec a rege nec a populo terræ secum haberent. Discedentibus clericis, uenit archiepiscopus ad papam, qui suscepit eum cum magno honore. In crastino fecit eum celebrare missam ad altare beati Petri, et ipse impo*su*it ei proprium pallium suum. Cum hæc ita facta essent, archiepiscopus cepit dicere pape de clericis, et de ecclesia Christi sicut superius dictum est, et papa ei de clericis quomodo uenerunt ad eum, et quod obtulerunt sibi magnam pecuniam pro pallio; et adiecit papa: Redite in Angliam cum benedictione Dei, et Sancti Petri, et in ecclesia tibi commendata, eiusdem ordinis in ea ponite quem papa Gregorius Augustino precepit, et hoc tibi precipio ex parte Dei et beati Petri, et nostra. Tunc archiepiscopus ita rediit. Cum autem reuer*tisset* in Angliam, statim adiit ecclesiam suam, et post adiit regem, et letatus est rex, et omnis Anglia, de reditu suo, et quod omnia secundum uoluntatem regis peregit. Post hæc reuersus ad sedem suam, et eiectis clericis, locauit ęcclesiam monachis sicut papa illu*m imperauerat*, secundum quod beatus Gregorius præcepit Augustino facere in primordio ęcclesię.[1]

V. The following piece contains the Latin Acts of Lanfranc referred to above, p. 206, note 2.

Hoc anno Lanfrancus Cadomensis abbas, compellente rege Willelmo, et iubente papa Alexandro Angliam uenit, et primatum regni Anglorum in æcclesia Cantuariensi suscepit, eligentibus eum senioribus eiusdem æcclesiæ, cum episcopis et principibus, clero et populo Angliæ, in curia regis. Cum autem Cantuariam uenisset, obuiam ei processit honorabiliter conuentus æcclesie Christi, coniuncto sibi toto conuentu Sancti Augustini cum 'electo eiusdem æcclesiæ' abbate Scotlando. Ad quem consecrandum omnes episcopi regni Anglorum, seruato antiquo more, uenerunt, et qui uenire non poterant, litteris et legatione sese humiliter excusauerunt. Non multis post diebus Thomas Eboracensi consecrandus archiepiscopus Cantuariam uenit. Cumque Lanfrancus, cum suffraganeis episcopis, quos ad hanc consecrationem aduocauerat, indutus ante altare Christi consideret, et totus conuentus, ut in tali sacramento fieri solet, albis honorifice indutus, in choro staret, adducitur Thomas examinandus. Cum uero inter alia professionem ab eo Lanfrancus cum sacramento requireret, respondit Thomas se hoc minime facturum, quia suos antecessores hoc Lanfranci antecessoribus fecisse non cognouerat. Lanfrancus autem quanuis sufficienti ratione hoc eum ex antiquo more facere debere monstraret, non tamen ille adquieuit. Surrexit itaque Lanfrancus et Thomas non sacratus abscessit, regem adiit, et de Lanfranco querimoniam fecit; quem Lanfrancus mox subsecutus, se et æcclesiam suam rationem habere in iis quæ postulauerat ostendit; nec destitit, donec Thomas, licet multo labore, Cantuariam rediit, ibique, quicquid Lanfrancus ab eo quærebat, humiliter exhibuit. Nec multo post Lanfrancus ab omnibus Anglici regni episcopis professionem quæsiuit, et accepit.

Secundo anno ordinationis suæ Romam iuit, quem papa Alexander in tantum honorauit, ut ei contra morem assurgeret, et duo pallia ob signum præcipui amoris tribueret; quorum unum Romano more 'ab altare' accepit, alterum uero ipse papa, unde missas celebrare consueuerat, sua manu porrexit. In cuius præsentia Thomas de primatu Cantuariensis æcclesiæ, et de subiectione quorundam episcoporum, calumniam mouit, quæ qualem finem postea in Anglia accepit, Lanfrancus breuiter et absolute scribit in epistola, quam præfato Alexandro papæ direxit. Hoc quoque anno generale concilium Wentonie celebrauit, in quo et Wluricum, Noui Monasterii abbatem deposuit, multaque de Christianæ religionis cultu seruanda instituit. Post dies paucos in Lundonia Osbernum, Essecistrensi episcopum, et Cantuarie Scotlandum, æcclesiæ Sancti Augustini abbatem, sacrauit.

Tercio anno in Cloecistra sacrauit Petrum Licifeldensi siue Cestrensi episcopum. Hoc quoque anno habitum est magnum placitum in loco qui dicitur Pinenden, in quo Lanfrancus diratiocinauit se suamque æcclesiam omnes terras et consuetudines suas ita liberas terra marique habere, sicut rex habet suas, exceptis tribus, uidelicet, si regalis uia fuerit effosa, si arbor incisa iuxta super eam ceciderit, si homicidium factum uel sanguis in ea fusus fuerit; in iis qui deprehensus, et ab eo pignus acceptum fuerit, regi emendabit; alioquin liber a regis exactoribus erit.

Quarto anno Patricium Dubliniæ ciuitati in Hybernia sacrauit episcopum Lundonie, a quo et professionem accepit, et litteras ei deferendas regibus Hyberniæ dignas ualde memoriæ contradidit.

Quinto anno generale concilium Lundonie celebrauit, cuius gestionem rogatu multorum litteris commendauit.

Sexto anno dedit Hernosto, monacho in capitulo æcclesiæ Christi, æcclesiam Rofensem regendam, quem et Lundonie sacrauit. Wentonie concilium celebrauit; et Hernostus hoc ipso anno ab hac uita migrauit.

Septimo anno Gundulfo monacho æcclesiam Rofensem tradidit, quem etiam Cantuarie sacrauit. Hoc quoque anno misit ei litteras Thomas archiepiscopus Eboracensis, in quibus rogauit ut sibi mitterentur duo episcopi ad consecrandum clericum quendam, qui ei litteras de Horgadis insulis detulit, ut ipsarum insularum episcopus consecraretur. Cuius petitioni Lanfrancus annuens, mandauit Wlstano Wigorniensi, et Petro Cestrensi episcopis, ut Eboracam irent, et cum Thoma tantam rem complere satagerent.

Octauo anno concilium Londonie celebrauit, in quo Ailnodum, Glastingensis cœnobii abbatem, deposuit.

Anno xi. celebrauit concilium apud Claudiam ciuitatem, ubi et Thomas archiepiscopus Eboracensis, iubente rege, et Lanfranco consentiente, sacrauit Willelmum Dunelmensi episcopum, eo quod a Scottorum episcopis qui sibi subiecti sunt, habere adiutorium non potuit. Huius ministerii cooperatores fuerunt, Lanfranco præcipiente, Wlstanus, Osbernus, Giso, Rotbertus episcopi. Eo quoque tempore misit in Hiberniam Donaldo episcopo litteras sacræ doctrinæ pinguedine refertas.

Sexto decimo anno sacrauit Donatum monachum suum Cantuarie ad regimen Dubliniæ, petente rege, clero, et populo Hyberniæ, quibus etiam literas exortatorias misit. Hoc quoque anno, apud Cleucestram concilium celebrauit, in quo Wlfketelum Crulandensis cœnobii abbatem deposuit. Rotbertum Cestrensi et Willelmum Helmeanensi simul uno die episcopos Cantuarie sacrauit. Mauritium Lundoniensi æcclesiæ apud Wentoniam consecrauit; qui sacratus, post paucos dies matri suæ æcclesiæ Cantuariensi cum honestis muneribus se præsentauit.

Octauo decimo anno, mortuo rege Willelmo trans mare, filium eius Willelmum, sicut pater constituit, Lanfrancus in regem elegit, et in ecclesia beati Petri, in occidentali parte Lundoniæ sita, sacrauit, et coronauit. Eodem anno Godefridum Cicestrensi æcclesiæ antistitem, et Widonem æcclesie Sancti Augustini abbatem, et Iohannem Wellensi æcclesiæ episcopum Cantuarie in sede metropoli examinauit, atque sacrauit. In crastino huius consecrationis Widonem abbatem per semetipsum Lanfrancus, associato sibi Odone Baiocensi episcopo fratre regis qui tunc Cantuariam uenerat, ad Sanctum Augustinum duxit, mandans fratribus eiusdem æcclesiæ, quatenus eum susciperent ut proprium abbatem atque pastorem; qui unanimiter animati responderunt, se illi nec uelle subesse, nec illum suscipere. Venit itaque Lanfrancus adducens abbatem; et cum monachos pertinaciter uideret resistere, nec ei uelle parere, præcepit ut omnes, qui sibi nollent obœdire, continuo exirent. Exierunt ergo pariter fere omnes, et Lanfrancus cum suis abbatem honorifice introductum in sede locauit, et æcclesiam commendauit. Priorem autem eiusdem æcclesiæ, nomine Ælfwinum, et alios quos uoluit cepit, et Cantuariam claustrali custodia seruandos protenus transmisit; eos uero qui fortiores, et caput scandali extiterant, in castellum duci, ibique in carcere custodiri præcepit. Cumque omnibus rite peractis domum rediret, nunciatum est ei monachos, qui exierant, sub castro secus æcclesiam Sanctæ Miltrudæ consedisse. Quibus mandauit ut, si uellent, ante horam nonam ad æcclesiam impune redirent; set si illam præterirent, non iam libere, sed ut fugitiui reuenirent. Hoc audito, in ambiguo habebant redire, uel remanere. Hora autem refectionis cum esurirent, plures ex eis pœnitentes suæ pertinaciæ ad Lanfrancum miserunt, et ei omnem obœdientiam promiserunt. Quibus continuo pepercit mandans ut redirent, et professionem suam præfato abbati se seruaturos sacramento confirmarent. Itaque redierunt, et se deinceps fore fideles et obœdientes Widoni abbati super corpus beati Augustini iurauerunt. Qui vero remanserant cepit Lanfrancus, et per æcclesias Angliæ diuisit, constrinxit, donec eos obedientiam profiteri coegit. Circa idem tempus Æluredum unum ex illis uagantem fugiendo cepit, et Cantuarie in sede metropoli cum quibusdam sociis illius qui abbati malum moliti sunt, ferro compeditos, multis diebus rigorem ordinis in claustro discere fecit; sed postquam sufficienter humiliati sunt, ut estimatum est, et emendationem promiserunt, misertus eorum Lanfrancus, de singulis locis, quo eos disperserat, præcepit reduci, et suo abbati reconciliari.

Eodem anno dissensione reiterata, perniciem abbati clam machinati sunt; et dum unus ex eis, nomine Columbanus, deprehensus fuisset, iussit eum Lanfrancus sibi adduci. Cumque coram eo astaret, interrogauit si abbatem uoluisset perimere. Qui confestim, Si, inquit, potuissem, pro certo eum interfecissem. Præcepit itaque Lanfrancus, ut ante portas beati Augustini, spectante populo, ligaretur nudus, flagellis afficeretur; deinde, præciso capicio, ab urbe pelleretur. Factum est ut imperauit, et ex hoc inquietudinem cæterorum, donec uixit, sua formidine quassauit.

Nono decimo anno defunctus est Lanfrancus uenerabilis archiepiscopus, et sepultus est in sede metropoli Cantuarie; qui in sede pontificali sedit annis decem et octo, mensibus ix, duobus diebus. De cuius actibus, edificiis, elemosinis, laboribus, scriptura quæ in eius anniuersario legitur ex parte commemorat. Multa enim era'n't ualde. Post eius obitum, Monachi Sancti Augustini, præfato abbati suo Widoni palam resistentes, ciues Cantuariæ contra eum concitauerunt; qui illum armata manu in sua domo interimere temptauerunt. Cuius familia cum resisteret, pluribus utrinque uulneratis, et quibusdam interfectis, uix abbas inter manus illorum illesus euasit; et ad matrem æcclesiam, querendo auxilium, Cantuariam fugit. Huius facti fama citati suffraganei eiusdem æcclesiæ, Walkelmus Wentanus et Gundulfus Rofensis episcopi, Cantuariam cum quibusdam nobilibus, quos miserat rex, ueniunt, ut tantæ offensæ uindictam adhibeant. Auditis ergo rationibus seditionis, monachi a culpa excusari non poterant: quos coram populo subire disciplinam, quia palam peccauerant, ii qui aduenerant, decreuerunt; sed prior et monachi æcclesiæ Christi pietate moti restiterunt; ne, si palam punirentur, infames deinceps fierent, sicque eorum uita ac seruitus contemneretur. Igitur concessum est, ut in æcclesia fieret, ubi non populus, sed soli ad hoc electi admitterentur. Vocati sunt ad hoc monachi ecclesiæ Christi, Wido uidelicet, et Normannus, qui disciplinam ad episcoporum imperium intulerunt. Deinde diuisi sunt per æcclesias Angliæ, et loco illorum xxiiii. monachi æcclesiæ Christi admissi, cum priore nomine Antonio, qui subprioratus officio Cantuarie fungebatur. Ciues vero, qui abbatis curiam armata manu intrauerant, capti; et qui se ab eius impugnatione purgare non poterant, oculos amiserunt.

Post obitum Lanfranci caruit æcclesia Christi Pastore iiii^{or}. annis, mensibus ix., et diebus ix. in quibus multa aduersa perpessa est. Anno uero Dominicæ incarnationis millesimo xciii. datus est pontificatus Cantuarberiæ Anselmo Beccensi abbati, ii. Noñ. Martii, uiro probo, bono, apprime erudito, et sui temporis nominatissimo. Venit autem Cantuariam vii. kal̃. Octob̃. multis eum causis rationabilibus detinentibus quod prius uenire nolebat; et sacratus est ii. Noñ. Decemb̃.

EXPLANATION OF THE GLOSSARY.

In the references A. has been written for Ā. throughout; this will cause no confusion as the few quotations made from MS. A. are cited from Wheloc's edition, and are indicated by the letter W.

The interpolations in MS. Ā. are indicated by a.

After 1080 A. D. no MS. is noted, except in the case of the fragment of H.; because, with that exception, E. is the only MS. which extends beyond that date.

The Menologium or Metrical Calendar contained in Appendix A is cited as M., with the number of the line suffixed; and, for convenience of reference, the Gnomic Verses which follow the Menologium are counted as part of it.

An asterisk after a form or reference means that the form or passage cited will be found in both the principal texts, Ā. and E.

Where a word occurs in two or more different forms these forms are numbered in the head-line, and to save repetition corresponding numbers affixed to the references given, thus: ā-flȳman* (1), ā-flīeman (A) (2). p.pl. -mdon. 797 A. (2) E. (1). This means that the form ā-flȳman occurs in both texts, the form ā-flīeman only in Ā.; and that the preterite plural will be found at the year 797, in Ā. in the form āflīemdon, in E. in the form āflȳmdon.

A dagger prefixed to a word means that it occurs only in the poetical portions of the Chronicle (including the Menologium).

Forms which are abnormal or corrupt are included in round brackets.

Where the corruption is in the syntax and not in the form (e. g. a fem. article agreeing with a subst. masc.) it is not, as a rule, noted in the glossary.

Reference is made by means of annals, unless the annal covers more than a page, in which case the page is generally given in addition. The letters t, h, m, l, b, suffixed to page-references indicate top, high, middle, low, bottom.

Names of persons and places are not included in the glossary; indices of these will be given in vol. 2.

A reference without any form preceding it indicates that the head-word occurs in that place in an unchanged form; i. e. verbs in the infinitive, substantives in the nominative or in an oblique case which does not differ in form from the nominative.

Unless otherwise noted the finite mood intended is always the indicative, the person, always the third person (singular or plural).

The abbreviations st. str. wk. applied to verbs and nouns indicate strong and weak respectively. In the case of adjectives the terms indefinite and definite are sometimes used to express the strong and weak declensions.

p. = preterite. p. p. = past participle. fq. frequently.

The ordinary grammatical abbreviations require no explanation.

Words which appear to be compounds have sometimes to be sought under their simples.

German words are given for comparison only when they are nearer in form or meaning to the Anglo-Saxon than any word in modern English.

Obsolete or provincial words are printed in spaced type, e.g. 'l a v e.'

i and y are often interchanged.

æ — e	,,	,,
o — a	,,	,,	(especially in terminations).
w — u	,,	,,
y — e	,,	,,

Words in which a occurs have often to be sought under ea.

,, u and y ,, ,, eo.

e. g. in the case of the umlaut of éa, éo, the Late West Saxon ý has been taken as the type, and not the Early West Saxon ie.

r, and l, and w, initial, are sometimes found for hr, hl, and hw, and (in the case of the first two) conversely.

i- initial often stands for ge-.

þ and ð are not distinguished.

The terminations -líc, -líce, have been marked long in accordance with tradition; but later researches have shown that before the chronicles were written the i had probably been shortened.

The gen. his, is in one instance treated on the analogy of ūre, ēower, as a poss.pron.adj. and declined: pl. hise. 1128. The form heoran which occurs above (gen. pl.) is probably due to a similar tendency to create a possessive pronoun for the 3rd pers. pl.

here, sb.m.str. ȝȝrr, (i) a host or army, but almost always of the Danish army; the native force is fyrd. (See however land-here, scip-here.) In 910E., the insertion of here is an evident mistake. In 906 E., East Engle here means: the Danes settled in East Anglia. In 1006 E., in here is used of the native force, perhaps as being nearly as fatal to the people as the Danes; in 684E., here is used of the force which Ecgferð sent to invade Ireland; in 1052 D. p. 175, of Edward's army opposed to Godwine; in 1052 C.D. pp. 178-9 b, of Godwine's invading force; in 1054 C.D., of Siward's English force invading Scotland (cf. 933A. where, on a like occasion, we have land here, scip here); in 1056 C., of English troops acting against the Welsh. In 1063 E., on a like occasion, we have land-fyrd, but scip-here. In 1066 D. pp. 195 b. 199 l., scip here, land here, here, and in 1066 E. p. 197, scip here, here, are used of Harold's preparations against Tostig and William, where C. p. 194 b., has scip fyrd, land fyrd. In 1073 E., here is used of William I's English force invading France, where D. has fyrd; in 1085 pp. 215–6, here is used of his foreign mercenaries; in 1087 p. 224 h., of William II's English troops which operated against Odo and his allies; in 1090, of Philip I's invasion of Normandy, though his forces combined with those of Duke Robert are called fyrd. (ii) In 1100, here seems to mean military service. nom.acc. here. passim. gen. heres. 874*. heriges. 937A. p. 108 h. herges.
